WOMEN'S

M I N I S T R Y

“What a great way to meet new people!”

“Loved Come to the Table ...Joan Kendall was in my group...need I say more?”

“I am so glad we did small dinner groups.”

“It was such a wonderful time of worship and hearing from our people and then personal fellowship. I think it was my favorite ever done.”

“Wonderful evening!! Loved the fellowship of being together at Covenant and the intimacy of a smaller get together for dinner!”

“Great time of sharing and getting to know each other.”

“Tonight was a huge hit with our group!”

“Tons of fun with sweet girls tonight!”

“So good for us to be with people we aren’t normally with. Just able to begin at the beginning with people...get to know them.”

These are a few of the comments that came to the Covenant Women’s Event Team after Come to the Table! As said, we did:

Gather and Give

Worship and Share

Find Our Place at the Table

Enjoy Food & Fellowship

Listen in as Connie Edwards, Grace Harrelson, Martha Baily, Ginny Johnston, and Tracy Stephens share about ministering in our local community.

We collected books, toothbrushes, applesauce, and much more for our ministry partners: Hope Health Center, The Lovelady Center, and Restoration Academy.

Our next Ladies event is Celebration Stories on May 8. Join us for brunch from 11:30 – 1:00, or come as your schedule allows. Women from Covenant Bible Studies will share how God has used time in His word this year to teach truths that transform.

There are many exciting things happening in the life of Covenant and I hope that you will plan to join us not just on Sunday mornings for worship and Sunday School, but for other opportunities as well.

Blessings,
Ingram
